

729 St. Nicholas Ave;
N.Y.C. July 10, 1900.

Dear Mama;—

We all received letters from you and Lilian this morning, and I will now answer yours. I got home from Queens Sunday afternoon, after staying all day at the Strusses, because it was grandmama's birthday. I wrote that they were coming to Queens on Sunday, but, as they were afraid that someone would call, they invited the Wards to stay all day.

I had a fine time at Queens, and I was always hurdling, pole-vaulting etc. When we went to see Cousin Mary on Saturday, it rained just after we arrived there: but I learnt how to play pool. Cousin Mary said "that she would go to the Catskills on Thursday to look for a

Mr. Wm. H. & Co. P. O.
-copy of July 18. H. W.

—; am all well and settled business all

Business is going on well but we are top

very busy and we are working hard to get the business all settled and we are

very busy and we are

working hard to get the

business all settled and we are

very busy and we are

working hard to get the

business all settled and we are

very busy and we are

working hard to get the

business all settled and we are

very busy and we are

working hard to get the

business all settled and we are

very busy and we are

place, for herself and Will.

"Brown's Beacon" is still unfixed. Yesterday we took a long walk and run, & to-day we intend to go to the Strusses.

What was Lillian's score and who won? How are the Seybels, McLintocks, yourself and Lillian?
We are all well,

Hoping that you are having a fine time

I remain

Your Son
Carl.

P.S. Look at the way Will spells McLintock on the envelope, which he thought was correct.

Carl