not too many days ago.

him and I did like him so much he seemed such a really delightful person, and was such a sport to come in that Sunday to take us out to Summit to be with his family and see Blanche.

Edith Stelling & her singer son will soon be on their way to Europe where E. will spend 3 mos in Germany. I don't know what handsome Billy will do. Something happened to his voice and he has been away from the stage some time.
Ed joins me in love to the family

just at present he is at a luncheon <sup>at home</sup>.

Bears —

Another heavenly day
and with the trees all turning a brown, it really does seem Fall is at hand.
I am so glad you like the flounce and lace Baths. They are for you & Barbara so do not send them back. You will find some way to utilize them,
we know, for one of you.

Did Karl hear from Olive Briggs? I hope so,
and if he wants her

"Batchelor's Dinner" I will send it on to him.

Another thing. — Mrs Dowling of Bronsvill phoned one day and we had a long visit. She had been up to see the property, later also her husband, and she told it lovely there and from her discription there were a number of houses not too far away. The whole place was regorded but it is hard for us to get there and the went on Young Earth etc !! The very idea! to what?

It is lovely to hear from you about Thami Thami. So sweet that she is to carry great grandmathe's name.

I do wish we could have been around when the three little letters were introduced to her. They are going to love her, even if she isn't another boy.

Blanche is back from the hospital. She may be much better for stay there. Grandma Jacob's, her cousin,
