My dear Mr Struss —

Here is a copy of my new "Arts" — the second issue, which I am now very busily preparing, is to be in rotogravure. I wrote you while you were still abroad — asking if I could have some of your pictures —

Could you let me have some pictorial "Ben Hur" pictures for my June issue? I would have to get them rather quickly — but they would certainly mean a lot to the magazine — Your work in my very first issue was so beautiful that I have not to have you in my new magazine — If you have no Ben-Hur pictures available,

perhaps there is something else
I could use from your camera.
I consider you one of the greatest artist of the camera — and I want to say so in magazine, in story accompanying your contributions.

Sincerely
