

The Vassar.

Rochester. N. Y.

Dear Laura.

Probably the very dearest recollection that this lovely picture brings back, is of the day that you and I stood in that very spot together.

A whole flood of precious memories comes back and I shall get more pleasure from your dear gift than you can ever guess. It is a beautiful picture - I can just fancy how Louise and George will love it with me when they arrive Sunday. We are going to have a very lovely Christmas together, - which explains why I have opened some of my presents a day or two early - to save hurry.

Let this bring you much love, and ever so many thanks, dear Lallo, from
