

Thursday.

My own dearest-little girl:-

This letter will be waiting for you when you arrive and I only wish I were there myself. A little sweetheart face just-begging and asking to give you a big hug.

Just to think we will really be together again. You have come Saturday, - leaving Denver on the nine o'clock train and will arrive about 11.30. D & R. G.

Sauva darling guess what - I had to tell you George and I are going to announce our engagement - soon. Oh I am so happy now that I have decided. It is all so wonderful and makes me realize what it all means. Don't let anyone get - will you Betty. I will write - your dear little notes when I come home. Tell me that you are happy for me Samby. We will have such good old times, don't we?
Remember that - you must - I will your little pal most of the time finding to be very selfish for us.

Your dear old letter came this morning and it was such a nice one. Please thank you very much for the fruit and I will bring down the money.

Love and most precious good for now. All my love and a big kiss to my old darling Edy

Dearest little Sam this is all I can give to write - but I had to say a word.

I wish you only knew the big pain
I have in my heart.

I am all cooped up in the worst little room and I am so desperately tonight for you. I'm head is aching and I feel nearly suffocated and would give all I have in the

Miss Gladys Hilda Mc Connell would to be with you. — all sneezed up in the little tent last night. I am just aching to kiss her goodnight.
