

855 Franklin St.,

Saura dearest

How can I ever tell the happiness you gave me in those beautiful violets? They are perfectly glorious and I never could express the deep and wonderful feeling that went straight to the heart.

O darling girl there is nobody like you but they never could be. You have everything for your own little self the violets have the loveliest

Had a sweet little letter from Francis the other day. He seems to be well and happy. Did write you soon soon again and let you know when I go back to the Springs.

Love & affection and thank you so much for the happiest-ever spent.

Always lovingly
- Gladys - perfume and the precious little notebook. my word is filled with it too.

I will always keep it in remembrance of my greatest gift - your friendship and love.

All day yesterday I kept back of the time and wondered what you were doing. At seven o'clock I said to Florence & wonder who Laura is sitting by at the theatre, and she said don't you wish you were sitting up to her, and "you bet!" never had such reverence before.

Dearest Anne and tell me all about it because it's "kinder lonely out here."

a happy Thanksgiving to my most dearest little Laura, the best-in the world, and may God give her everything that is good and wonderful
