

May 20, 1912

16 LILYBANK GARDENS,
HILLHEAD,
GLASGOW.

Dearest Rana:

Your dear
letter has just come in. Everything seems to be going well with you & I am glad.
I am engaged to be married to Archie Donaldson, who is a brother-in-law of my Aunt Grace's. She & I are marrying

brothers. He is a fine man, 15 years
older than I.
You may think all
this very queer,
Laura, but I want
you not to judge
me, but to remember that circumstances
change much.

I am very happy
to hope to be married in October.
Oh! how I wish you & Cilee were just here.

I would give a very great deal for it. Louise has been staying with us & is waiting over to be a bridesmaid, and perhaps Elma will be too. Lame.
I shall never be back in Colorado Springs now, so you must come to me some day. Any day you will be welcome, so, so welcome, and you will come to stay with Adeline & me before so very long. Remember that that is what I am looking forward to -
I can't write any more at present. There is scarcely a minute to spare.
Love to you all. my
dear, dear Lame.

Maymy.

May 20th