9 WINDSOR TERRACE,
GLASGOW, W.

Dearest Laura:

I don't know what you will think of me. — I did not wish to write to you about the picture before I had all the other people's letters written also,
and I did not take away all the cards with me on my honeymoon, & I was afraid to write to them from memory in case any one was left out.

Dear, dear Laura, I don't know how to describe to you the pleasure the picture gave me — First of all the thought that you dear generous heart had. and then all the Others joining in, and then the picture of my dear Colorado Springs - You will never know how much it means to me,

and how I shall prize
it all my life.
Thank you, Laura, from the very bottom of my heart. I never could let you know until we met how much you are ~~always~~ will be to me - Let us hope it may be soon. Write and tell me all about the farm & how things are doing with you,
and everything you can think of. Are you all well? Is everyone very happy?
We are glad
And are you still working hard at the violin?

Tell me everything. Have you no leisure to meandering yet? What a wife you will make — grand.
Well, we are settling down in our new house — have been home a week. It is all so nice, and the little morning room in which I am writing has such a dear, beloved picture in it, hung over the mantle piece, called Colorado Spring & Cheyenne Mountain —
we had a great honeymoon. staying for a month. Saw Eliza & Louise in London, and Charlotte too. Louise

Stirred up a few Scotchmen as they ~~never~~ have been stirred before, & left to the regret of all, smothered in red roses at the station (wonderful attention from a Britisher!!!) — She & Olivia were lovely at the wedding.

my photograph taken in my wedding gown & you shall have one.

Such a joke to tell you.
(Pass the joke on to Grady — the prospective bride — if you think she would laugh at it)

I CUT
TWO WISDOM TEETH

on my honeymoon!!!!!!
I have not finished laughing yet — She wonder I have is only that I didn't cut a whole one!!! Was it not funny though? I never have heard of such a thing - What chaffing I have had from the women of my family over it!

It is perfect being married - apart from the romance etc.
of it - It is the companionship that is so nice - Do hurry, Lawa.

Will you please write me.
And take sh: so much love, my dearest Lawa, and never, never. Will I be anything else to you than your very loving friend.
Marjory.

Nov 21st

The picture was in perfect order when I came.

How beautiful the frame is - we are going to have a glass put in

when I can spare it for a day or two, but the doing of that will cost us nothing -

How I love it!
