

Washington's Birthday.

Dearest Laura:

The only way I ever hear of my girl is by reading her name in the Society columns and even that gives me some pleasure. I wish it might find old chum hadn't thought of me just the same as ever because she didn't write to me she is too busy with the time to time. I can imagine how she had to settle her house was very as I wouldn't let her find her nurse and I did to sleeping and still going. But we all had such fun - it was such a happy time.
You were a sweet to think of me & Valentine's last and such a dear little verse. Only such a big playful Kate - my girl would have been terribly crying to her and I wish I was up there then to come to town.

Sarah, dear I am going to tell you the biggest secret on earth and you must keep this letter right up.
First thing there is a baby sister coming to Dorrie around the middle of July. I am most happy to think I have just two little lambs to bring up. Do you remember the day before you went to California and I was here to lunch. Well I was so sick I didn't know what to do and that is what I didn't tell you face. Promise me not to tell your mother or a living soul.

I am expecting letters from Mother & Father to say they are coming down and then dear girl I am looking forward to you. Oh so much. Write me a real.

letter soon. You will forgive me for all my thoughtlessness lately about you because I haven't felt very well this time but am over this now. You are the only one out-of the family that dreams of it - even Frank looks to know or feels my secret about you. I wish I were there to show you how beautiful Florence became tonight. Her hair - a sign of it and when Florence came she would believe it.

Good bye to our family. All my love and the biggest love. Daisy still says Sara Griffin lives in Colorado. I get sweeter every day and is such comfort.

Yours now
Elizabeth
