My dear -
(damn this pen!)

I would have written you before, but have been out of town "concertising" and only got back last night.

The photographs make me cry, but O, how glad I am to have them! They mean a great deal to me, as you know, and I'm very grateful -

Your letter, with thoughtful enclosed check, came this morning. I've just been in your room imagining it furnished as I

I should so love to have it furnished for you - with a big broad low couch all squally with cushions, and a beautiful thick, mossy rug, the walls lined with book-cases, a baby grand in one corner - etc, etc.

As a matter of fact, you won't have any of these things, you poor dear! But at least we'll make it liveable -

Can't write any more, as I have to tear down-town and see managers, etc.

With much love -

Brenda
