Dearest Lulu:-

I am having Lulu for her girl's gift, - & subscribing to 'The Musical Courier'. I hope you will already subscribe to it!
So I wrote you, I planned to write you a long letter from here. But - I find I can't do it. In the first place, I am really done from fatigue, and secondly, I have nearly finished my Xmas notes of thanks! There is one very nice thing in my friendship with you. I always feel secure in your understanding - and realize that when I don't write to you that you are not misunderstanding. I think of you very often.

and spend many thoughts planning how he may be together this summer. I am very anxious to see what Fate has in store for us for the coming summer. You keep your eyes open - and if you hear of a tiny little bungalow in the country, just let me know. How do you like your new house? Is it pretty, and do you have a view? Is it anywhere near Mrs. Leonard's? Do you still sleep out, at night?
Has anybody taken your wonderful house at Broadmead Ch. dear, there are so many questions I want to ask!
I will - ever forget - how dear you were to me at - home. You were so thoughtful and so sweet - to me, in so many ways. I can still feel - the loving thought - behind everything you did - may love to the whole family!
My dear love to you. Your affectionate friend and sister.
Anne Simon.
