Dearest Lanny —

I have just finished my last lesson! I have been expecting to hear from you. I have planned to leave here on Monday, but, — my mother, the

has been visiting here in Washington, is critically ill. If she doesn't pick up very shortly, it is likely to be very serious. I am very sad, but calm. I have been facing this for a long time, as she has known.

diabetes. So I am just starting, and finding the eyes have been getting improvement. I am anxious to know if you have the cottage for me? If I decide to come any day now, will it inconvenience you? As soon as I write you, just engage room & bath for me at Hotel Baccin, if you have no cottage in view.

I inclose check of $2.00 for the telegrams you sent me, & hope it is sufficient.

My love & thanks love to you —
Affectionately Anne.
