Dearest Lamm:—

Brother - The desperately ill - I don't know where to turn.
The case is baffling. Roger Brooke arrives to-morrow, & I will let him decide. I can't leave her like this. I may have letters out about of me. If by any chance you get - ~~the~~ Ballou cottage, or anything else there is very desirable hire me, & I will hire back immediately. I - who desire you to show me the telegram. I think all the time of how wonderful it - will be to be near one who gives me the best love & friendship yours.

My new love to you.

Love

My thanks are all for there I have had to know of this this last week the address to my fatigue! I am about done.

Dearest I wish — for me to go to her — I love — tell her how grateful

I am to you. I can only love you — that's all —
