

C O P Y

MASSACHUSETTS INSTITUTE OF TECHNOLOGY

Cambridge, Mass.

Department of English and History April 10, 1922.

Mr. Clarence H. White,
122 E. 17th St.,
New York.

Dear Sir:

In a new course here by Professor Seaver, lecturer in the Museum of Fine Arts, on "The Fine Arts in Modern Life" the undersigned is scheduled to give a talk, Sat. April 22, on "Photographs and Art."

If you should find it agreeable and convenient to lend for that occasion some of your studies, new or old, or reproductions (preferably 8 x 10 or larger), you may be sure of appreciation and personal care as well as of payment for carriage charges.

With thanks for your attention, I am

Sincerely,

----- (Signed) Ralph Morris -----

COPY of reply

April 12, 1922.

Mr. Ralph Morris,
Room 2 - 281,
Massachusetts Institute of Technology,
Cambridge, Mass.

Dear Mr. Morris:

Replying to yours of April 10th, I shall be pleased to send you some of my pictures for your tal on "Photographs and Art."

As I expect to send them off by Tuesday of next week, will you please let me know about how many you would want.

Very truly yours,

(Signed) Clarence H. White