Miss Laura Gilpin,

Dear Miss Gilpin:-

I regret necessity of wiring you today to hold exhibit pending further orders, as we are informed at last moment by local Museum that we cannot have gallery promised us to display photographs in. We hope to be able to arrange within a day or two for another gallery; if we cannot, we will have to defer the exhibit for a month or so.

I am writing Los Angeles, to see if they can take exhibit now in our place, provided we have to cancel our present dates. If they can so take it and if we have to cancel the existing contract, I will wire you to ship to Los Angeles.

I am very sorry this contretemps has occurred; it is our misfortune that we do not control any local gallery. Trusting that we can arrange to show photographs as per original plans, and with appreciation of your courtesy, I am

Very truly yours,

Executive Secretary.
