

CLARENCE H. WHITE SCHOOL OF PHOTOGRAPHY
Four Sixty West One hundred Forty-fourth Street
NEW YORK

Nov. 1, 1922.

Dear Miss Gilpin:

Under separate cover I am sending you the books concerning the exhibitions, which you so kindly left with me.

We have been having several meetings about the School, and so much interest has been manifested that I believe there is no doubt that it can be reconstructed.

I have spoken to several about the Eastman proposition, and they feel that the best way for him to take an interest would be to hold the mortgages on the property.

I will let you know as things develop about the School, and I surely appreciate all you have done to help.

With best wishes from us all, I am

Sincerely,

CHW/AFB
