NEW YORK CITY

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

PRESIDENT CLARENCE H. WHITE
VICE-PRESIDENT DR. CHARLES H. JAEGER SECRETARY-TREASURER DR. WALTER L. HERVEY MARY H. WHITE WALTER L. EHRLICH

Nov. 8, 1922.

Miss Laura Gilpin,
601 N. Cascade Ave.,
Colorado Springs, Colo.

Dear Miss Gilpin:

The letter of Sept. 11th you received, stating that the Board of Directors of the Clarence H. White Realty Corporation had decided that the Clarence H. White School of Photography ought to be abandoned and the realty sold for the benefit of the stockholders, has caused a number of the stockholders to make inquiry as to the reason for such action.

A number of the stockholders have debated the matter among themselves and feel that any action of abandonment ought to be approved and authorized by the stockholders before the directors would be empowered to take any complete legal action. It has also seemed to this group, particularly friendly toward the School, that every effort for its continuance and success had not been exerted, and that there are ways and means at hand which will enable the enterprise to be successfully conducted. With these ideas in mind it was thought the expedient thing to do was to call a meeting of the stockholders for the purpose of having a detailed report of the affairs of the corporation delivered by the secretary and treasurer, and determine then to empower the directors to dissolve the corporation or adopt any practical measures for a successful continuance.

This is a most important matter for it means the saving of an enterprise that has been known for years world wide. It is the institution that put you in the way of acquiring a grasp of the artistic photography that has enabled you to appreciate and enjoy the happiness of better work, or it may be you received the education and preparation to follow photography of the better type as your vocation. In either event your interest and concern has been increased and enhanced by your friendly association with the School.

It is imperative that you be present to voice and vote your sentiments. If you cannot be present will you please sign and return the enclosed proxy by first mail which directs that your vote be cast in favor of the plan which will be adopted as the most expedient. If there is any doubt of your presence send in the proxy and if you find you can attend the meeting, the proxy will not operate and you may vote in person.

Trusting that you will make every effort to be present, and with best wishes, I am

Sincerely yours,

CHW/AFB
