

Dear Great Heart,

Your wreath hangs over the door a constant reminder of the joy having you for a friend, gives me. I hope you are getting rested from the Christmas strain, and that you are well and happy.

I see Brenda occasionally always she rejoices me. There are so few, so few of the chosen ones. I long to see and talk with you.

Affectionately, Faithfully

Gertrude Käsebier.

123 Waverly Pl.

New York

Jan 1st 1923.

Miss Laura Gilpin.
1215 Wood Avenue.
Colorado Springs.
Colorado.