

May 27th 1924 /

Dear Miss Gilpin:

Your "Spirit of the Prairies" haunts me still, and I trust that you will again honor us with a full poetry of your exceptional work for the coming Salon.

Inquiries from abroad are already coming in and the "Thirty-Third" promises to be the finest ever.

Kindest regards and best wishes

Sincerely, J. H. Mackay