OCTAGON ANNEX, WASHINGTON, D. C.

13th December, 1925.

Miss Laura Gilpin,
49 West 12th street,
New York City.

My dear Miss Gilpin:-

I thank you for your interesting letter of Friday, with its suggestion regarding your series of photographs of the Indian drama at the Mesa Verde.

I shall be glad to talk with you on either December 18 or 19, as you suggest, and consider anything you may wish me to hear, but I must in fairness tell you beforehand that as we are heavily stocked with material already, we are not making any purchases at present. If, on the other hand, you regard publication in ART AND ARCHAEOLOGY as many others of our contributors do, it may be possible to make some mutually satisfactory arrangement. I am usually at my office from ten in morning until 1:30, and from 2:30 until about six.

Very sincerely yours,

Arthur Stanley Riggs
Director and Editor
