

TO THE FRIENDS OF CLARENCE H. WHITE

Our friend, teacher and fellowcraftsman is dead. His work is over. Never again will the personality that was Clarence H. White - that working together of temperament and sensitive taste and consuming purpose - produce a photograph. Never again can he personally give to his students those sympathetic yet searching criticisms that faithfully showed them how weak they were yet always somehow made them courageous and strong.

But it would be a poor tribute to the vision and the spirit of Clarence White to say that in any real sense his work is finished. It must go on and it will go on as long as we who have been helped by his life and who believe in what he lived for, remain true to his memory.

It is with this idea - that it is our privilege to keep his memory alive and to continue his work - that the plan of a Memorial Book has been formed.

The Memorial Book of Clarence H. White will contain thirty (or more) beautiful reproductions, in photogravure or in one of the two new processes which are thought to be comparable in excellence.

Too indefinite

The edition will be limited to 500 copies and the price will be about $10 a volume, payable in advance of publication. Your subscription for one or more volumes is solicited. Checks may be mailed to who will be responsible for their return in case for any reason the books are not delivered.

BUT PLEASE REMEMBER

We wish to have - we must have - the money entirely in hand before going ahead with the book.

If ~~then~~ you are interested in the project, if you believe in it, if you wish to join with others in putting it through, ~~then - if you wish these reproductions of Mr. White's best work (which are unpublished?) then~~ PLEASE send a check for the amount of your subscription, now.

If then you wish these reproductions of Mr. White's best work, hitherto unpublished; if you are interested in the project of the Memorial Book, - if you believe in it enough to help in putting it through, then -

Please send a check for the amount of your subscription now.
