

March 2nd, 1926.

Dear Mrs. Hefvey:-

It is very strange about the mix up. I have such a definite remembrance of it all, but perhaps I got it all mixed up with his idea of a "Memorial Annual". If this is what happened I am very sorry, and I trust that the consequences have not been hard on you. I have not written to Mr. Drew as you requested me not to, but if there is anything I can do in explaining the mistake, I will gladly do so.

Two doses of "flu" and a week in Denver have put me way behind both in work and correspondence. I think the addition to the letter is excellent. I firmly believe in trying for the photogravure book at $15.00 a copy. When the time comes if we are unable to raise the amount we can turn to some other process. And I do wish some one could see Mr. Rudge about the new "aquatone" process. I feel very far away and unable to help to amount to anything. If you think it would be wiser to turn the committee over to someone else, I will do so, but anything that I can do from this distance, I will most gladly do.

I would like to see one of Mrs. Wlmann's excellent portraits of Mr. White used on the announcement folder. The one Miss Watkins has. Mailing lists must be prepared. Mr Steiglitz would help I am sure with some of the older photographers. Mrs. White can give a long list of friends who are not photographers. And we must get a foreign list too. I will be glad to address and mail if things can be sent out to me. If Mr. Goudy is to do the book, he is the one to design the announcement. As soon as a decision is reached it must be started.

I am so sorry that you have had such an endless seige with your leg. It is too bad, and it certainly is no fun to be kept from work.

My best wishes to all,

Sincerely yours,
