

The Woman Citizen

CARRIE CHAPMAN CATT
CHIEF CONTRIBUTING EDITOR

VIRGINIA RODERICK
EDITOR

MRS. RAYMOND BROWN
MANAGING DIRECTOR

THE EDITORIAL OFFICE

171 MADISON AVENUE, NEW YORK

January 29, 1926

Miss Laura Gilpin,
8 East Willamette Avenue,
Colorado Springs, Colorado.

My dear Miss Gilpin:

This is to acknowledge receipt of your letter and the wonderful photographs in response to Miss Adams' telegram. Word really should have gone out to you earlier, and I beg your pardon for the inevitable delay.

When we wired, we were quite certain that the article would appear in the February issue of the magazine, as something else of a timely nature on which we had counted was failing us. However, things turned out differently at the last moment, and the article is postponed until March. I hope you will pardon us if we caused you any inconvenience.

I am going to make a choice of the pictures this afternoon, however, and send the remainder back to you, because, as I understand from Miss Adams, you want to be sure that they are not out of your hands very long. It's going to be mighty hard to make a choice because they are all so beautiful. I am shocked to realize that the photographs have already been here a week. When they came, we were just at the crisis of closing the number, and things were so rushed that I couldn't find time to make the layout. Since then I have been out of the office a couple of days with a slight illness, and - here's the week gone. I will of course return the photographs that we use as soon as they have been reproduced.

Very sincerely yours,

Virginia Roderick

VR.CL