

February 8, 1926 -

FIVE HUNDRED AND THIRTY-FIVE PARK AVENUE

I have only the things that I really love or that really help me -

I do wish we had been more of each other - The afternoon
of your tea was one of the rosy spots of a very anxious winter.
Billwyn has gone
home, Ellen, though still ill, & I have

Dear Laura: -

The photographs
are more beautiful even than remembered, &
I am so happy to have them - "Winter Patterns" (I think that's a perfect title) "Snow Coral", &
"Ghost Rock" are being framed to hang in my work-room, where

taken a rest by having influenza & am now hard at work. Thanks goodness, on a new book -

All best wishes, &
thank you for the really wonderful pictures -

Affectionately

Ann