

Our Xmas was made by the little babe this year.
We were at Lewis'; had a pretty tree - nice gifts & a good turkey dinner. I had many beautiful cards & yours among them - so I had many friends with me in spirit.

I hope your work is progressing satisfactorily, & that you will get much joy & inspiration out of it.

Always cordially
Jane Felix White.

Jan. 6 - '26.

My dear Miss Gilpin:-

I've spent some time to-day getting together the prints which you had marked for the Congregational Library - & as I go over the list I am conscious of a lack of real portraits. They are mostly pictorial things & I am wondering if posterity may not be wishing for some examples of his real portraiture. How do you feel about it? Men of our day well known in art - ^{& life & figure & etc.} Abbott Thayer - F. Hopkinson^{Smith} - John W.
Beatty - John Burroughs - Veragias (I know that is not correctly spelled) - do you feel we should put in one or two - or more?

And would you suggest they be mounted alike
as to size - or on 11×14 & 14×22 - as Mr. White did?

You see Mr. Putnam
may have certain measurements he must adhere to - I thought I'd get your advice - & then if you think best, I'll write him about it. When you write give me all the suggestions which may have come to you since your last visit with him. I am very anxious now to complete this collection - & am going to see how nearly I can duplicate the collection for me here at the school, & for exhibitions.

Things are going on here just the same;
some matters gradually clearing, & I guess some day I'll be straightened out.

Clarence Jr. is in bed & under the Dr. care with an ugly spell of bronchitis.
"Tried out" the Dr. says.

Mr. Ira Martin is soon coming to see me, when I hope to arrange a programme for the Friday night meetings. I am very anxious to get them started.
