

Jan. 22 - '26.

My dear Miss Gilpin:-

Well, here I am in mid-afternoon, starting the letter I planned to write you this morning! My days seem to get busier - I have constantly more people coming to see about the school - and from the number am getting some few more students, & some very interesting prospects. I do hope they will come too.

I shall try & touch on all important matters. 1st. Your press is on the way - I to-day mailed you the bill of lading. I decided it was best, if possible, to have a company in our neighborlook after it, & Lewis felt I got a very reasonable price - the crating & shipping to train $8.00. It was sent collect &

I do hope will reach you Q. & blankets & all.

The treatise on photogravure
I think I'd better not sell, since its the only one we have, but I shall mail it to you & you can return it when through with it - and no hurry.

I wrote Mr. Putnam - & am hoping for an early answer.
About the (Hartman print)
"Mr. Lile" - I have not fully reached a conclusion - you see Mr. White had very few good examples of gums - & "Kevin Burke" one of them is already in the Congressional Collection - and #23.00 is, as you know, much less than he sold them for. But very soon I'll decide.

One thing if the Metropolitan Museum should ever ask for prints, I'd like to have a few good examples - & so must not let all go now, but this print I more than likely ^{will} sell.
Your letter, (you will laugh when I tell you) you had directed to 460 West 114th St - instead of 144th, so it was delayed in reaching me. I am glad your work has been arranged satisfactorily - but
"don't overdo."

Miss Herrick has made a beautiful plate of "The Reader".

I can locate no print plate of "the bride" & am going to have her copy the only print we have of it. And as soon as possible will you please send the list of plates you have, as I do not want to make any duplicate plates. I shall need to know, as only yesterday Mr. Drew called up to say a memorial exhibition for Mr. White is contemplated. Mr. Purdy I wrote to - but never had any response.

Another thing - are you able to get the mounting board Mr. White always used. Holden & Hawley cannot get it any more - so I looked up an old address Mr. White had, of a Boston firm - and to-day I had word they could supply it - so I'll give you the address - Cook, Vivian Company, 189 Congress Street,

Boston, Mass..

I just talked with Mrs. Hervey over the phone. She is much better she says, but it has been a long siege for her who is accustomed to such freedom.

Clarence Jr. is back in school.
but is not confining himself quite so closely. He is doing quite a bit of studying at home, & going down for classes. This gives him more time for rest. I, too, often feel very anxious about him.

Now for figures 125.00 press
 5.00 print
 3.00 studio &
 chemicals
 8.00 crating

 141.00

$150.00

$ 9.00 due you, for which I enclose check.

I hope everything will go nicely with you. I shall mail book soon, & also more of those copies of article by Mr. White.

Write when you can, & call on me for anything I may be able to do for you.

Lovingly

Jane Felix White.
