

460 W. 147th St.
New York City

kindest regards to each
of your family, & think
of us as your sincere
friends & the whole
White family!

If I can do anything
for you at this end of the trail, let me know.

Most Sincerely
Jane Felix White.

Please excuse blot: 'My fountain pen either
feeds too freely or not
at all. - By the way,
would you care for
some of the copies of
enclosed article for
your work?

Dear Miss Gilpin:- Several
times I called up Mr.
Purdy - once Mr. Russell
answered & assured me that Mr. Purdy had full control of the sculpture
gallery - & not he or Mr.
Price. Then getting Mr.
Purdy on wire he assured me they did have a
say - & each time I was
to have definite word.
By the following day.
None came until today, saying that they'd like to open the exhibit
the 30th & to please let

them hear from me
immediately so that
they could send out
invitations & etc, & etc.
Can you imagine anything more ridiculous.
open the 30th & this the 29th. I have not heeded
the letter & shall not.

I have had a letter
from Mr. Putnam &
shall proceed with
my work on the collecting.
Thank you sincerely for all you have done.

The chuck arrived O.K.
& Lewis will attend to
the crating & shipping
of the press.

We all have enjoyed
your beautiful Christmas Card, too. And it was most thoughtful of
you to send me the
letter assuring me
that all was well
with the plates. And how strange to realize
that so soon we were
so many miles apart!

I hope you found
all well, & that you
are getting rested.

We miss you, &
shall hope that all
goes happily with you
until you are again
with us. Give our