Monday

Dear Anna

It is hard to say any thing that will comfort at such a time & I know how dreary every thing must seem to you. I just want to send you my love, my sympathy, & wish I could help in some way. My mind goes back to the old days, & the many happy times I spent

With your Mother, it is a happy memory, & one I treasure. I do feel so deeply in you all, in your frown, as we can take the place of our Mother, it is a loss, that never grows less. Thinking of you very often.

I am
affectionately yours.
