

children she so loved there is no comfort I can offer.

These rich, treasured memories of a most immortal mother will grow more precious with the years - My sincere love and deepest sympathy go out, from the depths of my heart - for I do most truly mourn with you -

ONE HUNDRED AND THIRTY PADRE STREET
SANTA BARBARA, CALIFORNIA

Dear Frank

The guest book that has come to you, Lema and Francis has come as a faithful clerk and the deepest sorrow to Helene and me -

We had not known that dear Emma had been ill. Mrs. Hapdorn's letter, written last Sunday morning has just come and we are grateful to her - Emma meant more to us than any of our Colorado Springs friends

- and in truth we owe all the kindness that has always been shown us than by the many of your friends, to Emma - It seems much wiser to think of returning with Mark the has gone - to visit, to find a man and not long of him - No one could ever seem to lack community - and to you and the
