Philadelphia, Pa.,

My dear Mr. Mallery:-

Your print is being shipped to you to-day, and I trust that it reaches you in perfect condition.

I regret being so long in sending you some other prints on approval, but two groups that are at exhibitions, or rather have been, seem to be long delayed in return. And a large lot of portraits have kept me so busy during the last month, that I have had little time to work on some others. However, I hope that within a short time I will have a group off to you.

Thanking you for your interest, and trusting that the print reaches you safely, I am

Sincerely yours,
