Dear Miss Laura:

We were greatly surprised and shocked to read in the morning paper that your mother had slipped away. We didn't know even that she was sick. When we get old we have to let go, but your mother was not old and in the ordinary course of affairs she ought to have lived ten or twenty years yet. We want you to know that we are grieved at her leavetaking and send to you and to your father, ^{+ brother} our sympathetic best wishes.

Sincerely Yours,

MDO:MB
