

NOVEMBER 16, 1927

my days are largely given over to the atterras of life; my take up a lot of precious time and we can't perceive any results.

But somehow I get a kick out of 'em.

Even buying union suits for the Ohio has quite a colorful side - tho', at moments, we is prone to forget & ignore it.

Have been wanting to see you of late classes I've started

Dearest Laura -

If you heard from me every time I think of you, your life would be so cluttered up with little letters that you be snowed under, and, likely, bored to extinction.

But, fortunately for you,
I am still chasing ^{the} rain-bow of peaceful, relaxed existence and have so far achieved it only in dreams - there are in appreciation of music and art.

Two small groups of from five to half-past six - and eleven to thirteen.

If I could tell you what a genius you are I get out of it - I do more than the students. No they seem to have a terrific time, too.

If it had not been for my blessed B. K. Marnell's help in selecting the prints I think it could not have been started at all.

But - well! No use doing her praises to you, Laura, dear - for you see her as she is, which is all we can say in the way of superlative praise.

Susan has been doing quite a bit of scraping since we came from Chicago and sounds more human than she has before.

Playing more of what I call the Confetti type of music. Viennese, Spa-gate et al. It keeps the fingers!

Now it gets on the nerves after the long practice - Can't make up my mind to play in public; no it is not a world-shaking question, it crops up every few months in some form or other.
Last & hardest to decide, is whether Playing some Times the 24th at our Airs Club. the celist is the problem (as of yore) - but he can't keep it.

Every time we get going good he has ^{to} scramble & Carve up some Godey's Brain.
A distinguished brain surgeon and an excellent amateur celist - but Curious, like they all are.

A totally different
race, if you ask me.
It was wonderful this sun.

I'll be sufficiently free to (in my mind) to play some recitals in Southern Cities next Season - notably Birmingham, Shreveport & Arkville, clubs - (Ladies) entire program - Awfully hard to tell whether or not union suits & music some be up for most - ~~at the~~ most remote future time.
My feelings ~~have~~ are definitely all the while to my air fire side and peace.
Another middle-aged symptom.

next, m^o, meeting Poppe again - and liking her.

Here I chatter along & say nothing of what I'm thinking when ever I think of you!

~~If~~ I could only see and talk with you!

How is your nice Daddy
& Francis?

Drop me a word when you get a chance!

And remember, you are with me almost every day!

Devotedly
Pace
