I have girls. No one replaces the loneliness of living without that wonderful clother love, and Companions-ship better than I. but the friends she left in you and your Brother.
Is a happy memory and inspiration, and incentive.
Please give my deepest to your Father, and Sam too. When I come to the Springs about the twentieth, may I see and tell you what yearning so truly expressed?
Love, and understanding sympathy.
Ever, Emma White.

Laura dear.
It was only on my way to Colorado that I learned of your illness.
Pages the sad news
of your mother's death. and even now I can't sense it! I had been looking forward with so much happiness

3 helped as she never could realize. and ever since. I have treasured her friendship as very dear. and never failing.
How much she gave of her strength, and fearlessness, and how much she stood for in the Community!
I never knew any one more unselfish in her desires to help the Widows. and feel so grateful for having known her.

2 to seeing your dear family. and when on speaking of you to that friendly fellow traveler. she told me you were after her gone. I could not believe it. Never will I forget her kindness to me when I came to see Sam at the Hospital. Her courage and cheer. her interest and standing right there when I needed a friend.
