

is the way or another, we never, send free. Both are glad too if she has been spared. Things are easier to face too when one is pregnant and well. I know what beautiful work your father has done, - can see how interesting he must find it. Am glad he is enjoying a fishing trip, he will do him good.

I had always hoped
we might have a camping trip together. but it was not to be. So old I fear and difficult to get away.

I am so pleased that Maude is doing well in Texas. Tell your father your pictures, I fear I don't like much better.

Your letter which came day before yesterday - was a real pleasure. Your
dear letters mean so very much to me. that I do want to cling to you dearer father & keep in touch with you - so far as possible. I can imagine how little spare time you must have, keeping a house and all your own work too. Am sorry indeed to hear there have been worries life seems to hold plenty

I think our ranch has been sold.
all things papers with signed - left all these years! When your letter came I asked Edward Curtis. (Agnes husband) who is in the E. K. Co. to find out about your pictures, which he did this morning he went down to Kilale Park with him. met Dr Wrightman, head of the Camera Club.
I saw the pictures. We were just in time as it is over to day. They are beautiful Laura, and Edward had to accept to say, also Dr W. thought they were the best one person collection they had looked all of on. which pleased me very much. I saw at once the ones you sent me look Christmas. which I am so proud to show to my friends. We were much interested in the dark Cathedral, & the light window back. So unusual.
also the one one of Harold Bauer - (can't remember how to spell it) with his hand raised. I regretted to meet that Dorothy could not go with us. A friend from out of town came this morning & they had a full day. She would have loved seeing these.
Wish we could have a good visit &
I know more what you are doing.

If you ever come, each let me know.
I'm very ill in my leg - but gaining now all things I am on the shelf. with all to do anything, not managed to crowd up stairs to see
