Dear Miss Gilpin:

I have received your package of prints and from the looks of the package they have evidently come thru in good condition. I am going to unpack them tonight and they will be hung in our club rooms tomorrow evening. They will be here during the entire month of July and will then go to the Portage Camera Club at Akron, O., for the entire month of August, which I trust will be satisfactory.

I wish to thank you very kindly for sending us these pictures and I know they will be enjoyed. I will write you more fully later with regard to the exhibit.

With kindest personal regards, I am

Very sincerely yours,

THE CLEVELAND PHOTOGRAPHIC SOCIETY

P. S. I want to thank you for the two little books which you have included in this shipment. I have not seen them yet, but I know I will like them.
