Dear Madam:

Mr. Frankenberger, our Print Director, has gone to the country for an indeterminate vacation in hopes of improving his health, and, according to his letters, is feeling very much better. His address, by the way, is simply "Sheridan, Illinois."

Meanwhile, we must get along as best we may without him. Your letter to him, dated September 8, was opened by the officers at our last meeting, and we offer our sincere apologies for having failed to acknowledge the receipt of your portfolio. It arrived promptly from the Portage Park Club, and Mr. Herron there was notified that it had been received safely. All of the sixty-five prints were in perfect condition and we immediately placed them upon our walls, where they have been viewed and very favorably commented upon by our members and visitors.

We will forward them to the Kodak Park Camera Club in about a week or ten days, at the same time advising you that they have been shipped and sending you a summary of the discussion at our September 21 meeting, which is to be devoted mainly to study of your prints under the guidance of our more advanced pictorialists.

Your courtesy in loaning us the portfolio is thoroughly appreciated, and we thank you.

Very truly yours,

Fort Dearborn Camera Club
