Miss Laura Gilpin,

Colorado Springs, Colorado.

My dear Miss Gilpin:

Please pardon me for not writing sooner, acknowledging receipt of the photographs of Grace Church. These, especially the interiors, are very beautiful and satisfactory; and the exteriors, I believe, are about as good as can be made from this side. Of course the exterior suffers from a lack of softening effects of time. Ten years from now, when the vines have grown to some size, it will be very much less hard and edgy. Perhaps, also, by that time some one will plant some good looking trees on the west side of the street.

The interiors, I believe, leave nothing to be desired, and we shall look forward with pleasure to receipt of the remainder, which you say will be sent soon.

Very truly yours,

E. Donald Robb
