Dear Mr. Cox:

Your kind letter has been many, many weeks unanswered. I received it while I was in New York and the stress of New York life seemed to be sufficient for my answering my letters. The medal came sometime ago and I have written to Mr. MacKenzie. I am, of course, very pleased to have won this medal and I wish that I might see the exhibition that you hold in your section of the country.

I had a very interesting trip to New York and as I was on the jury for the P.P.A. International Exhibition and it was indeed interesting to see the fine work that was sent in. The new jury system that this organization had worked out was very exceptional I thought and made for the fairest possible kind of judging.

I appreciate your wish to exchange prints with me and I shall be very glad to do so sometime in the future. As it is necessary for me to earn my living by photography I do not have as much time as I should like for exhibition work but when I have the time to make up some prints I will let you know.

With best wishes for your success,

I am

Very truly yours,
