Dear Miss Kimball:

Your letter came several days ago and I am sorry not to have answered it before this, but I have been very rushed with a lot of work. I shall be glad to try two or three more Scouts for you. I know the ones which you refer to and I guess I instinctively chose girls whose types are light rather than the ones your Art Editors prefer. I am sending you proofs of one child that I had which I did not send you in the beginning as her type did not appeal to me, however, it may be what you wish. The little child with the freckles was in a brownie dress. Do the brownie uniforms here differ from yours in the East?

I think I know two other girls who would be more suited for your purpose and as soon as I am able to get hold of them I will do some more. Would you be able to use the three other Scouts for some Scout purposes at $10.00 each? A considerable outlay of material has gone into the making of all of these, as in several instances I worked twice with these children.

Thanking you for your interest, I am

Very truly yours,
