

November 29, 1929.

Fisher and Fisher, Architects
Denver National Bank Building
Denver, Colorado

My dear Messrs. Fisher:

I have just discovered that through error the prints of the Jarvis Johnson residence on which was a misspelled word, were sent to you through error. We are just completing a reprint of this picture together with the sheet containing the pictures of the Medal. These will go forward to you in a few days.

Thank you very much indeed for your offer for some of the portfolios. I made a few extras for myself, but I would appreciate two more copies, one for the Boldt Engraving Company and the other I should like to send to Mr. Goudy, the type designer for his criticism on the entire job.

There is no hurry regarding these and I can get them the next time I come to Denver. With kindest regards to you all, I am

Very truly yours,