Dear Madam:

In the October issue of your magazine appears a photograph in connection with an article entitled, "Preparing your Daughter for Adolescence." It so happens that I made this photograph for the Girl Scouts of America and I am writing to ask you how it has come about that it has been used in this connection? Also, the photograph is credited to Miss Van Damm. The article was brought to my attention through the Parent of the Child whose photograph you have used. I feel sure that there has been some mistake as this was made particularly for the Girl Scout Organization and I find no connection with the Girl Scouts in the accompanying article. Would you be so kind as to send me some explanation thereof?

Very truly yours,
