My dear Miss Gilpin:

When you come to Denver next, be sure and look me up as I have a prospective job in line for you.

Mr. Malcolm Wyer, City Librarian, is a member of our Fine Arts Committee, and in connection with our City Club postal cards, he mentioned that he would like to get up twelve photographs of the branch libraries in Denver and place an order for postal cards at the same time.

I told him he had better have you take the twelve photographs and showed him some samples of your work. He said he would like to have a talk with you as soon as you are in Denver next.

Yours truly
