Dear Miss Eelfin

Thanks for your letter & remittance
I will instruct the printers to send you the book.

My remarks on your picture were purely personal. There is always another point of view & I never claim to give even the right one. I admire you for sticking to your convictions, & I hope sincerely that you do not think I have done you picture a public injustice. If you do I beg forgiveness.

It would be a pleasure to meet you if you come to England again; but I do not count on being much at the R.P.S. in the future. The Society, it would appear, thinks that my efforts are of less use to them than the success of their rival book
"The Year's Photography" which is made a more severe competitor every time. Having lost Libo of my own over my venture I think it's time I gave up.

Kind regards

Yours very sincerely
F. T. Huey
