My dear Miss Gilpin:-

It is my pleasure to advise you of the choice of your photograph, "Polo," as the first prize winner in The Sportsman's photographic contest, and to enclose herewith our check for $250. A reproduction of the photograph will appear as the frontispiece in our January issue, a copy of which will be sent you as soon as it comes from the press.

The decision of the judges was unanimous, not only on account of the beauty and spirit of the photograph but because of its definite and vivid sporting interest. Please allow me to congratulate you on achieving a really remarkable picture, and to express the hope that you may be moved from time to time to submit such other examples of your work as you think may hold possibilities for The Sportsman.

The other excellent photographs that accompanied "Polo" are being returned to you under separate cover.

Yours very sincerely,

Richard Danielson
