

Greening used in Saturday's
"Post". Here's the clipping.

It may amuse you.

Some people interested too, in the Bodanzky - saying Mrs Samies should buy it for Friends of Music. But I doubt if anything will come of that. Our show continues for two weeks more condensed into the single large front gallery, as someone else has the other space.

Have to be up there most of the time, so haven't been able to work much lately.

Mr. Cret has seen - approved "Post" - so I'm about

Laurie Dear:

Your dear note just forwarded from Washington. Don't worry.
I didn't go down. It wasn't serious. He just had a dizzy spell - indigestion or something, - and left the hospital next morning. Was back on the job on Monday.

ready to begin the full size. Every I can't write more tonight. Will write soon again. Love - Bradie

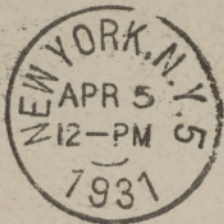

Furious that the papers got hold of it.

While the doctors had him, they made a number of tests & found him pretty much O.K. Don't think it will happen again, or at any rate not for a long time.

He's coming up here next Thursday for a week - two speeches to make. I'll watch over him as well as I can. Naturally we don't like it - but must talk over with him & pretend it's nothing.

(The cat is messing up this letter - sorry). Eliot's shows, with my small addition, opened last week. Very favorable comment, & a few pictures sold. The figure of you - which I call "Summer" seems to be making quite a hit. I had just one print of it which Margaret
