

STUDIO
LAURA GILPIN
317 CHEYENNE ROAD
COLORADO SPRINGS, COLORADO

Jan. 18.1932.

Mr..Edgar C. McMechen
Colorado Association,
Denver, Colo.

Dear Mr. McMechen:§

Here are a group of prints, twenty in all submitted for the Colorado number of the National Geographic Magazine. Since I saw you, I have added several to those we selected, ones which I believe will be of interest.

As you will see a number of these are copyrighted. These are mostly ones that appeared in my booklets of Mesa Verde or the Pikes Peak region. The Polo ofcourse, has been reproduced in the Sportsman, and Higher than Pikes Peak has not been submitted anywhere until now.

The Polo and Public Health are both prize winning prints, though this may not count for anything for the purpose for which they may be used.

Hoping that you will find sufficient material here to help with your endeavor, and with best wishes

I am

Sincerely yours,

LAURA GILPIN

317 CHEYENNE ROAD
COLORADO SPRINGS
COLORADO

IN ACCOUNT WITH

PRINTS SUBMITTED TO THE COLORADO ASSOCIATION FOR THE NATIONAL GEOGRAPHIC MAGAZINE.

1. Polo. (Copyright)
 2. Higher than Pikes Peak. (Copyright)
 3. The Corley Mountain Highway. (Copyright)
 4. The Mine Shaft, Cripple Creek.
 5. The Mine, Cripple Creek.
 6. The Bridge, Royal Gorge.
 7. Golf Tournament. Broadmoor Hotel Course.
 8. Trans-Mississippi Tournament, Broadmoor Hotel Course
 9. Sunset, Mesa Verde. (Copyright)
 10. The City of the Dead. Mesa Verde (Copyright)
 11. Indian Study, Mesa Verde.
 12. Square Tower House, Mesa Verde, (Copyright)
 13. Sand Dunes. Foot Prints in the Sand.
 14. Moon of the Red Gods, Garden of the Gods.
 15. The Garden of the Gods.
 16. The Telephone Bldg. Denver.
 17. The Voorhies Memorial, Denver.
 18. The Capitol. Denver.
 19. Boise Penrose Memorial Hall, Fountain Valley School
 20. Riding. Fountain Valley School.
 21. Public Health. Colo. Springs Visiting Nurse Asso.
- Permission is hereby granted to the Geographic Magazine to reproduce in the Colo. issue any of the above copyrighted prints.