

Dec. 6, 1932.

The Platinotype Co.,
66 High St., Penge,
London, England.

Dear Sirs:-

A week ago I cabled you to ship at once one roll of regular W.J.B. paper. I enclose herewith a postal order for £3/8/2 for this order. An unexpected amount of Christmas work made it necessary to cable and I trust that you were able to catch a fast boat.

A few days previously I had mailed you an order for one roll of double coated paper which I wish as soon as you can send it, in addition to the cabled order.

If this double coated paper is all that I hope it is I will be wanting another roll before long, as I am preparing for an exhibition.

Very truly yours,

Dec. 6, 1932.

The Platinotype Co.,
66 High St., Fenge,
London,
England:

Dear Sirs:-

A week ago I cabled you to send me a roll of W.J.B. Platinotype. I enclose herewith a postal order for £3/8/2/ for one roll of regular paper. A few days previous to the cable I had mailed you an order for one roll of the double coated paper. Since then I have received more orders than I had anticipated for Christmas work and I hope that you were able to ship the regular roll at once, the double coated roll can come whenever it is ready.