

same, and would like you to send it as soon as possible.

I presume you have lost my order, the address, or something of the sort. It was a glazed ($2.00) photograph of Miss Fish seated on a sofa with Camellias at the right side of the picture.

Please give me some information about this matter.

Sincerely —

Madame,

I bought, or rather ordered and paid for, a photograph of Lillian Fish as Camille at the Central Art Emporium in Central City. It was to be mailed to me from your Studio some three weeks ago & has never been recieved.
I have a receipt for the
