Miss Laura Gilpin,
317 Cheyenne Road,
Colorado Springs, Colorado

Dear Miss Gilpin:

I am sending you a night letter as follows:

IN PARAGRAPH TITLED GRADUATION RESTORE READINGS
QUOTE HAVE SPENT HAVE SHOWN UNQUOTE STOP LINE
UP NUMERALS IN LOWER HALF EQUIPMENT LIST STOP
PRINT FIVE HUNDRED COPIES PROOF AND LETTER
MAILED THIS EVENING.

The usage governing in perfect subjunctive forms "have spent" and "have shown", rather than the indicatives "has spent" and "has shown" is the same as that requiring subjunctive "Hold the rank", rather than "holds" in that same paragraph, or in the paragraph on entrance requirements, "We require that the boy be"

Very sincerely yours,

L. S. Hitchcock
Head Master
