

again and I am looking forward to seeing Boardman on Tuesday.

The play seems as exquisite as ever, and we are well beginning to branch 'em about here - we did not central.

Should you see Miss Evans please give her my kindest remembrances. and with every good wish to you and again my warmest thanks for the picture.

Yours always sincerely
Maffet Fehner.

NEW HAVEN, CONN.

My dear Laura,
Forgive my not writing sooner to thank you for the beautiful portrait.
It was my boast of you to remember and I am most grateful. The portrait has been much admired by everyone who has seen it.
We often here at home night and day of thank we should do good business. It is nice to have Bess with us
